Headteacher:
Mrs Kate Marrs-Gant MA(Ed)

Vacancy: Full Time Early Years Practitioner/EYP Salary Range: £19,363 to £29,924

Are you an experienced Early Years Practitioner with a degree who is committed to working with children with SEND?

Are you looking for the next step in your career?

We are an outstanding Special School for Pupils with Severe Learning Difficulties in Hemel Hempstead, and we have several class leader vacancies in our Lower School (mixed classes with Year Groups 1-4). All of these pupils are working within the EYFS and our class teams include five adults on average. The average class size is ten pupils.

We are looking to recruit two experienced candidates who would like to develop their career within a Special School, starting in January 2022. One post is a permanent vacancy; the other post is adoption leave cover.

You will have:

- An Early Childhood Studies/ Education Degree
- A Level 3 Qualification in Childcare or Early Years
- An enthusiastic, positive & creative personality
- Experience of working within the Early Years
- Experience of working with children with SEND
- A commitment to working hard within our team

We can provide:

- Outstanding practice for children with SEN
- Excellent Staff Team – supportive & established
- Very experienced Leader for the Lower School
- Salaried Teacher Training
- A school with outstanding facilities indoors and outdoors
- A school that promotes community links and inclusion
